monarchs of forgotten ages. The Eel River flows in majestic grandeur around two large bends, giving within two miles seven miles of river --- the virgin Redwoods growing to the very water's edge. By holding the East Fork of the River to its winter level, a beautiful lake extends around two sides of the hotel, greatly enhancing the already beautiful setting of this unusual hotel. The golf course is now ready for play, each hole is in itself a picture and no two holes are similar, either in character or in length. Miles of bridle paths and trails for horseback riding and hiking. The lake affords delightful swimming and boating. One may join the game, the dance, but let him desire seclusion, and the wilderness lies before him. Deer and bear abound in the surrounding mountains. He may fish the stream to its source, cross ridge on ridge of the high ranges, and for the bolder huntsman who does not ask a trail, country untouched by man invites him.

BENBOW...may be reached by motor from San Francisco via Sausalito over the Famous Redwood Highway, or night and day Pickwick stages direct from Fifth and Market Streets to the door or via Northwestern Pacific Railway night or day service to South Fork where a car will meet you by appointment.

The hotel is modern in all its appointments --- every room with bath, steam heat and all the comforts of a city hotel. Every room commands a beautiful view of the surrounding country.

The garden rooms, while a part of the hotel, are outside reinforced concrete rooms opening into the garden and onto the lake.

The terrace rooms are likewise modern --- private bath, steam heat and artistically furnished and open on a beautiful wide stone terrace.
